

Jennifer Cabral

Director of Communications

Jennifer Cabral is the Director of Communications for the Orange County Sanitation District (OC San).

Ms. Cabral leads the Public Affairs Office and Board Services, a joint staff of 15 people, managing marketing communications, community relations, public affairs, legislative and government affairs, branding, stakeholder relationships, event planning, media relations, board relations and public records for the third largest wastewater treatment facility west of the Mississippi River.

Before her promotion, Ms. Cabral served as the Administration Manager. Ms. Cabral has over 20 years of experience in a wide range of areas that include public affairs, administration, board services, and wastewater industry relations. Her professional experience includes development and implementation of award-winning proactive public participation and community outreach programs.

She is a graduate of California State University of Long Beach where she earned her Master of Arts degree in Public Policy and Administration and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Communications with a minor in Human Services from California State University of Fullerton (CSUF). She also holds a certificate from CSUF in Public Employee Leadership Development and Reputation Risk Management from Public Relations Society of America. Most recently Ms. Cabral was also awarded the California Association of Public Information Officials (CAPIO) 2022 Paul B. Clark Achievement Award honoring her commitment to leadership and mentorship within the communications field. The Paul B. Clark Award is the highest honor bestowed by CAPIO.